Kristina Claunch -> All Participants: Is her video still sharing?

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Can someone put links in chat?

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: yes

Chhann Ya -> All Participants: yes

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Perfect - thanks

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: These are great resources to share. LOC obviously has so many images, but it's good to know these other departments, offices, etc. have lots of images to use as well.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: My kids loved when I was at a selective that weeded NASA posters

Tracey Boswell -> All Participants: <https://www.aoc.gov/explore-capitol-campus/art>

Caroline Gilson -> All Participants: RE: National Gallery of Art. I taught a session for Chemistry of Art and shared a source with the class titles Artists' Pigments. Think its a 3 or 4 vol series. Was exactly on point for the class. <https://www.nga.gov/research/publications/pdf-library/artists-pigments-vol-1.html>

Tekla Slider -> All Participants: +1 Elisabeth

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: At ALA NOAA was giving away bookmarks with great images

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: This is giving me all kinds of fodder to share with my “Gov Doc Tuesday” emails that I send out each week

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: I want to hear about htat Elisabeth

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: Each Tuesday, I send out an interesting, funny, odd, weird, etc. Gov Doc, to my 60+ colleagues at Randall Library, UNC Wilmington. I usually get a lot of positive feedback.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Can you add me?

Lara Flint -> All Participants: You can search the CGP for GPO Staff Picks to see some fun documents/get ideas too. This LibGuide tells you how and gives links to past months' picks: <https://libguides.fdlp.gov/fdlp-content/featured-fdlp-content>

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: CT State Library uses HistoryPin and Flickr (original in digital collections) <https://www.historypin.org/en/person/7673#!photos/list/>

<http://www.facebook.com/CtStateLibrary>

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: Thanks Lara, I'll bookmark that site to use for future Gov Doc Tuesdays...:)

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Elisabeth - would you be interested in sharing your series with <https://godort.libguides.com/weird>

Donald Sensabaugh -> All Participants: If have any questions, please add them to the chat and send them to "All Participants" or to "All Panelists."

Bert Chapman -> All Participants: Loving these photos.

Karina Ricker -> All Participants: I got a little lost . . . did you say to credit the photographer even if in public domain?

Mary Russell -> All Participants: Do the numbers you used for each topic area correspond to something or were they just for the presentation?

Kelly Smith -> All Participants: I'm curious if you've considered creating a LibGuide for this content? It's a great presentation with really useful links/information.

Marna Morland -> All Participants: Yes to a LibGuide! Great idea!

Gwen Sinclair -> All Participants: Glad that Jennifer pointed out the NASA disclaimer and mentioned that not all images on federal websites are public domain. We got an infringement letter from an attorney after we used an image from a NOAA website on a LibGuide. We removed the image and notified the attorney of its source.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Putting in context is SO important. We have been contacted by film productions and we stress that if our image is used, we want it in proper context. Ex. Classroom of Stamford when Jackie Robinson was barred from buying a home. I wouldn't suggest anything not in specific context

Debora Jarrell -> All Participants: When crediting the photographer, how do you do it?

Debora Jarrell -> All Participants: What is the format?

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Debora - lib of Congress gives citations - I used their format as an example

KATHY CARMICHAEL -> All Participants: If and when the LibGuide is done, please submit to FDLP LibGuides!

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: It's like when you include a map, your citation should include scale along with agency, publication, date of map as well as date of publication.

Debora Jarrell -> All Participants: I have been putting it on the image itself. Is that ok?

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: If using archival materials, include record group info too

Katie Salis -> All Participants: Thank you!

Tekla Slider -> All Participants: This has been amazing.
